PING[®] FINES

World #1 Lee Westwood is one of three PING pros with two wins in a successful start for PING players and products in 2011. For the win totals, see next page.

KIM, HJORTH LOOK FOR MATCH PLAY SUCCESS

At #6 in the Rolex Rankings, I.K. Kim is the highest-ranked PING pro competing in the LPGA's Sybase Match Play Championship this week. Kim is #1 in average birdies per round, and has four top 10s in four starts in 2011. Also playing is Maria Hjorth, who won her fifth title at the LPGA's most recent event. See the full roster of PING pros on the next page.

PING
SHOT OF THE WEEK

Bubba Watson fired up the crowd on the par-3 17th at TPC Sawgrass during The Players Championship, draining a 47-foot putt for birdie in round two. The leader in FedExCup points, Bubba is proficient in hitting greens. He's #1 on Tour in GIR.

PING products helping staff pros to wins in first few months

It has been a productive first few months on the PGA Tour for PING pros and their equipment. Through The Players Championship, PING has four driver wins, five with irons, and four putter victories.

Lee Westwood returns to action this week at the Volvo World Match Play Championship.

PING pros have four titles on Tour with Bubba Watson and Mark Wilson each winning two. Worldwide, PING has 8 victories, counting two by world #1 Lee Westwood, plus Maria Hjorth and Louis Oosthuizen.
